DGTO - CONSULTATIVE SESSIONS

The Directorate General of Trade Organizations, with a view to create required linkages among the Regulator Trade Organizations (TOs) Ministry of Commerce and Textiles Division and the private sector (Associations and Chambers) plans to hold Consultative Sessions on regular basis for the Licensed Trade Organizations of Pakistan.

Licensed TOs offering collaboration will be given the status of “Coordinating TOs” for a lead role in holding Consultative Sessions in different cities of Pakistan on a sustained basis.

Broad objectives for engagement with Coordinating TOs for Consultative Session activities include the following: -

- Establish an active platform for mainstreaming legitimate trade bodies for improved compliance of regulatory requirements under relevant laws.
 - Create an environment to foster cooperation among TOs for increased awareness on implementation of Trade Organization Act 2013 and Rules made there under.
 - Assist licensed trade bodies to actively participate in implementation of key initiatives on trade through increased interactions for sharing updated information.
 - Encourage pro-active role of licensed TOs in development and promotion of sectors and regions in line with their respective Annual Plan of Activities and Performance Report.
